SENATOR HUDKINS: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Hudkins, what kind of distinctive insignia or uniform does a state emergency response team member wear?

SENATOR HUDKINS: The ones in Saunders County at least will be wearing their emergency services technician's uniform or their firefighters uniform. At Saunders County at least, they are the same people.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But that's not required under this amendment, is it?

SENATOR HUDKINS: The uni...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It's not required that anybody wear any distinctive uniform or attire?

SENATOR HUDKINS: Not in...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Isn't it true?

SENATOR HUDKINS: Not in the amendment, no.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay. Thank you, Senator Hudkins. I don't want to seem to badger you so I'm not going to ask a lot of questions but...of anybody. If you look at the provision of statute which is being amended by Senator Hudkins' amendment, you'll find it on page 1166 of the Journal, or the upper portion of her amendment. It talks about any person knowingly...who knowingly fails or refuses to obey any lawful order of any peace officer who is controlling or directing traffic. Well, the peace officer has to be, obviously, a peace officer. If the peace officer observes the violation, the peace officer issues the citation. None of the people designated in Senator Hudkins' amendment, except peace officers, is authorized to issue a citation. So if somebody drives along this section of the highway, how are they going to be cited? When you deal with a moving violation, you don't cite the vehicle, you cite the driver. When a peace officer stops a person, the peace officer
